

DON'T give your TELEPHONE NUMBER or ADDRESS to anyone outside your team. Visitation flier should have ministry office telephone number.

DON'T LEAVE PERSONAL ITEMS out in plain sight.

DON'T CARRY PURSES OR BAGS containing valuables. Carry personal items in pockets.

DON'T take video or photo pictures while outside unless you are with a staff member and have asked parental permission or appropriate person.

DON'T walk the streets night or day alone. It is MANDATORY that you are in the company of a staff or team member any time you are on the streets or in the open air of a neighborhood.

DON'T go on the streets at night except on supervised trips/ministry.

DON'T give local residents a reason to accuse you of inappropriate behavior, especially with the opposite sex.

DON'T invite local kids or teens to go with you without staff permission.

DON'T STARE into the eyes of people for prolonged periods of time. Your eyes should glance and then look away. Exercise prudent behavior and judgment while on the streets.

DON'T run towards a disturbance. Get away from danger, whatever it may be. Things happen and end quickly on the streets. Play it safe.

DO show RESPECT for any authority, rules, guidelines, and all people met while ministering on the streets or in a neighborhood.

DO have a cheerful attitude.

DO keep your mouth shut when you are out on the streets; unnecessary noise from strangers can cause serious problems for ministry now or later.

DO ask questions when in doubt.

DO take advise from staff seriously and listen closely during all training sessions.
