Questions and Answers

Q: What is Urban Missions Boot Camp?

A: 6 days (Sunday-Saturday) of action packed ministry, challenges and training.

Q: For whom is Urban Missions Boot Camp?

A: We organize Boot Camp for mature Christians who have graduated from CYiA® training through Child Evangelism Fellowship® Inc., youth groups (students 15 years and older), Bible college students, or individual students and adults are welcomed. Note: For groups of students, 1 adult leader is needed for every four to five students under 18. As leaders, you have all the time to bond with and disciple your students. The Urban Missions Boot Camp will do all the sweating over the details!

Remember: You must get CEF Board/Committee approval to travel and minister outside of your CEF chapter's area.

Q: What will I do?

A: You will be involved in many aspects of city kids ministry through CEF of North Carolina. We'll be busy from mid-morning till late night. This will encompass urban ministry classes to real ministry, from team building to neighborhood visitation, and from the streets of the inner city to city life at night, you'll see and do it all. (Some activities subject to change)

Q: What will I learn?

A: You'll learn what it takes to be effective in the inner city. You'll also learn to face your fears at whatever level, and see that YOU CAN do it. There is a fine balance between workshops and real-life experience. You won't just see and hear what CEF and its partners do in the city, but you will be able to take a God-given vision back to your own city.

Q: What will I get?

A: Once you arrive, we take care of everything else. Your stay with us includes housing, 2 meals per day, transportation to selected activities, and ministry equipment. You'll leave us with more than just nice pictures, closer friends, and memories. You'll leave Boot Camp with a different mind-set, a different view of inner city ministry.

Q: What does it cost?

A: $150 per campers (1st year only at this low cost). Once again, this includes all meals, housing, all transportation and teaching materials. (You'll need to bring bedding, towels etc. – see below) Bring money for late night meals, coffee, special events, and extras.

Q: When does Boot Camp take place?

A: We run urban missions boot camp during the third week of June. Present location is Durham, NC.

Q: How do I reserve a spot in Boot Camp?

A: Anybody who considers attending needs to complete the Urban Missions Boot Camp interest card with signatures and sent to the return address or give to a local CEF director. Additional questions will be answered by calling CEF Durham 919-682-7317. This will guarantee your spot as a candidate. We work on a first come, first served basis. Decision on boot camp students accepted will be May 1st.
